

SASKIA VISSER | PROGRAMME LEADER SUSTAINABLE LAND USE

Wageningen University & Research centre, Environmental Research

Dr. Saskia Visser is program leader Sustainable Land Use at Wageningen Environmental Research.

Within the organization, Saskia deals with topics such as, Soil health, Sustainable food production, Climate Smart Land Use, and Data Management for Sustainable Land Use.

Saskia is one of the founders of the CSABooster, developed the Soil-Food-City Nexus program for the Flevocampus. Bringing scientific research closer to society, so that the results can easily be applied, is one of the most important objectives of the Link: <http://csabooster.climate-kic.org/>